

Scripture of the Quarter

This scripture tells us of how all things are going to be made new:

Then He who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.” And He said to me (John), “Write for these words are true and faithful.” Revelation 21:5.

Our goal is to preach the full Gospel of Jesus Christ and never compromise on God’s Holy Word. The ministry was founded in May of 2008, by Divine direction from God. In our prison ministry we go to the maximum security prisons for both men and women located in Gatesville, Texas. Prisons for juveniles are called State schools in Texas; we currently go to Crockett and Gainesville, Texas. In prison ministry we follow the example in Hebrews 13:3 Remember the prisoners as if chained with them—those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body.

The other goal of the ministry goes hand in hand with preaching the Gospel, and that is bringing this lost world to the knowledge of accepting Christ as their personal Savior. John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.” We know with God all things are possible. In the world today there are so many lost souls who are hurting. Some are bound by all types of addictions. In John 8:36 “So if the Son sets you free, you are truly free”. This is comforting to know that Jesus can and will heal all addictions, but YOU must ask and then BELIEVE to receive.

6. Zechariah 12:4-10 The Messiah will return to save Israel from destruction. The second coming after the tribulation (7 years of judgments on earth) - Revelations Chapters 6-19
Will you be left on earth to witness the judgments written in the book of Revelations which are also covered by Jesus in Matthew 24? Who will remain? Those who have not overcome, not ready, not watching, with soiled garments (not washed by the blood of the lamb), prayer-less, and the unbelieving.

2 Peter 3:3-4 “Knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, and saying “Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.” (NKJV)

Matthew 24:48-51 “But if that evil servant says in his heart, My master is delaying his coming; And begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards, the master of that servant shall come on a day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour that he is not aware of, and will cut him in two, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” (NKJV)

Have you wondered about the parable of the ten virgins in Matthew 25:1-13? Jesus said that they were all virgins and that there were some that were wise and some that were foolish. What happened?

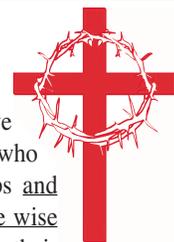

Read with me—

Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Now five of them were wise and five of them were foolish. Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. But while the bridegroom was delayed, “they all slumbered and slept.” “And at midnight a cry was heard, “Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!” Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, “Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.” But the wise answered, saying No, lest there should not be enough for us and you, but go to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.

“And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came (Jesus); and they that were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut. Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, “Lord, Lord, open to us!” But he answered and said, “Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you. Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of man is coming.”

Let us reason together: If all were virgins then they all believed that the bridegroom would come for them. In other words, they had all accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior at one time. They all fell asleep, but some got lazy and did not prepare

As we enter into 2010 I would like to talk about a fresh start for the year. I would like to discuss the significance of the number eight.

The number eight in the Bible signifies a new beginning. The numeral consists of seven + one. We have seen that seven denotes perfection, and one beginning. It is associated with resurrection and regeneration, the beginning of a new order of things.

When the floods of the wrath of God swept the old world, "Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness" (2nd Peter 2:5), stepped from the ark into a new world, to begin the race, as it were, anew. In all eight persons were saved (1st Peter 3:20). In Genesis 21:4, we read: "Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him." Circumcision, then, took place on the eighth day, and the apostle writing to the Colossians, gives its spiritual significance thus: "putting off the body of the sins of the flesh" (2:11), a consequence of new creation in Christ Jesus (Eph. 2:10). Again, seven days were occupied with the consecration of the priesthood, and on the eighth day they entered upon their work (Lev. 8:33). With the cleansed leper, too, the eighth day marked a new beginning, for on that day he was presented by the priest before the Lord (Lev. 14:10, 11).

The eighth Psalm announces the new kingdom, the kingdom of Christ, "crowned with glory and honor," and with" all things put under His feet (cf. Heb. 2:5-9).

Again, in Luke 9 the Lord Jesus talks to His beloved disciples of His coming sufferings, and then the day when the Son of Man "shall come in His own glory and in His Father's, and of the holy angels" (v.26). In the next verse, He speaks of "the kingdom of God." Then follows the transfiguration of the Lord in the presence of Peter, John, and James, who were privileged to see an outshining of that predicted glory. Verse 28 says that this took place about "an eight days after," beginning as it were a new age, when "He received from God the Father honor and glory" (2nd Peter 1:17). It was, moreover, on the eighth day, "the last day, that great day of the feast," that Christ gave utterance to that wonderful invitation to men to a new experience and life: "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me and drink" (John 7:37).

In this New Year 2010, I pray we all hunger and thirst for Jesus Christ. I pray we make Him, first in our lives. For those of you who have not accepted Jesus as your personal Savior, this is your new beginning make 2010 the year you say yes. John 3:16 says "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life". What a promise!

I hope all of you have a wonderful New Year and are prosperous in serving Jesus as your Lord and Savior.

for an extended wait. When time came they did not have enough oil to get them through, so they were left outside (here on earth during the tribulation). They thought they would have plenty of time. Have you gotten lazy in your wait for the Lord to return or are you enjoying the things this world has to offer and believe you have plenty of time to get your heart right with the Lord? My brothers and sisters please prepare yourself for we are not promised tomorrow. Today is the day of salvation and do not fall into the trap of thinking you have plenty of time. Repent (turn away from your sinful life and rededicate your life to the Lord. If you repent and ask Jesus to forgive you, He is faithful and just to do it.
